In pension record #W19176 nearly all of this information is found. The yellowed page from their Bible is in this pension record, but so aged that names of children are not legible.

In 1881 a Mrs. O. S. Judd writes to the postmaster of Sockport, N.Y., asking for the last address of Cyrus, son of Ara. She says she was Ann Eliza Dibble, b. 1821, dau. of Levi Dibble, who was son of Cyrus. She had uncles, Silas, Tompkins, Carmi and Grodi, all of Scotch descent. From location and names, Gradus Dibble (A) may belong here

Lois Dibble, wife of Ara, lived with her son Harvey at 44, in Town of Province of Upper Canada or Canada West. This affidavit dated 6 Apr., 1840, she was 75.

Asa enlisted April 1778 at Granville, N.Y. Taken a prisoner at Fort George by Major Carlton, and taken to Canada until end of War

In 1790 Census he is listed from Bealston, Albany Co., N.Y. 1-0-1; later of Saratoga Co., N.Y., and in 1820 of Boonville, Oneida Co., N.Y.

settler in Ernesttown Township
David Shorey, the Loyalist, was residing in Vermont when the American Revolution began. He joined the Loyalist forces in July 1777, and on his discharge from the service in December 1783, he ~~remained in Quebec until the following spring~~ when he settled in the Bay of Quinte area, Ernesttown Township. Here he became a pioneer settler. He died 24 March 1837, and lies buried in Switzer's Cemetery in Ernesttown.

David Shorey's grandfather, Samuel Shorey, was born in England and emigrated to America and settled in Kittery, Maine. On 29 April 1702, Samuel married Mary, daughter of Thomas Rhodes and Mary Thompson. David's father Miles Shorey, ~~father of David~~ <sup>the</sup> fifth child of Samuel, was born in Kittery, Maine 23 Feb 1710. He removed to Rehoboth, Mass., where he married 28 Oct 1731, Elizabeth Walker, who was born 24 March 1711/12. She was daughter of Ebenezer Walker, grand daughter of Philip Walker and great granddaughter of the Widow Walker who had emigrated from England with three children in 1635. Through his mother he was second cousin of Robert Perry and Daniel Walker, both <sup>future</sup> Loyalist pioneers in Ernesttown.

David Shorey, <sup>son of Miles was</sup> the eighth child in a family of nine. <sup>He</sup> was born in 1747, in Rehoboth. He married Abathia Garg. Her first cousins were Ebenezer Washburn, also a Loyalist settler in Ernesttown and of the latter's sister, Jennema, wife of Robert Perry. About 1768, he and his wife, along with their cousins removed to Vermont. Here they settled in the Otter Creek Valley. In 1772 David and his Cousin Robert Perry purchased 50 acres. Here they were busy clearing and developing their land when the American Revolution broke out. Early in 1777 when the British Army under General Burgoyne advanced up Lake Champlain from Canada, many loyal persons offered their services in ~~quelling the rebellion~~. Companies and battalions of Loyalists were formed. <sup>many of the</sup> Loyal Vermonters

DIBBLE.

Asa Dibble, according to the War Office Papers (in the Public Archives, Ottawa) dated Jan. 1, 1782, and 1783, was born at New Wolbury, America. He was born in 1760, was 5 ft 8 inches tall, and had enlisted about Feb., 1780.

According to the Madding Papers (Public Archives, Ottawa) he was single and at St. John's, Quebec, Canada, on 27 Jan., 1784, and on 13 Oct., of the same year he was settled in Township 7 (Elizabethtown) just east of Brockville, Ontario.

In another list in the same papers he is called a farmer from Vermont. ~~XX~~ I have failed to find New Wolbury on any map of New York, Vermont, Maine, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Connecticut or Rhode Island. It is quite possible that it is an error in transcription, and that it should be New Milford, Conn., because a number of soldiers in the same regiment came from that place. The Dibbles were a Connecticut family.

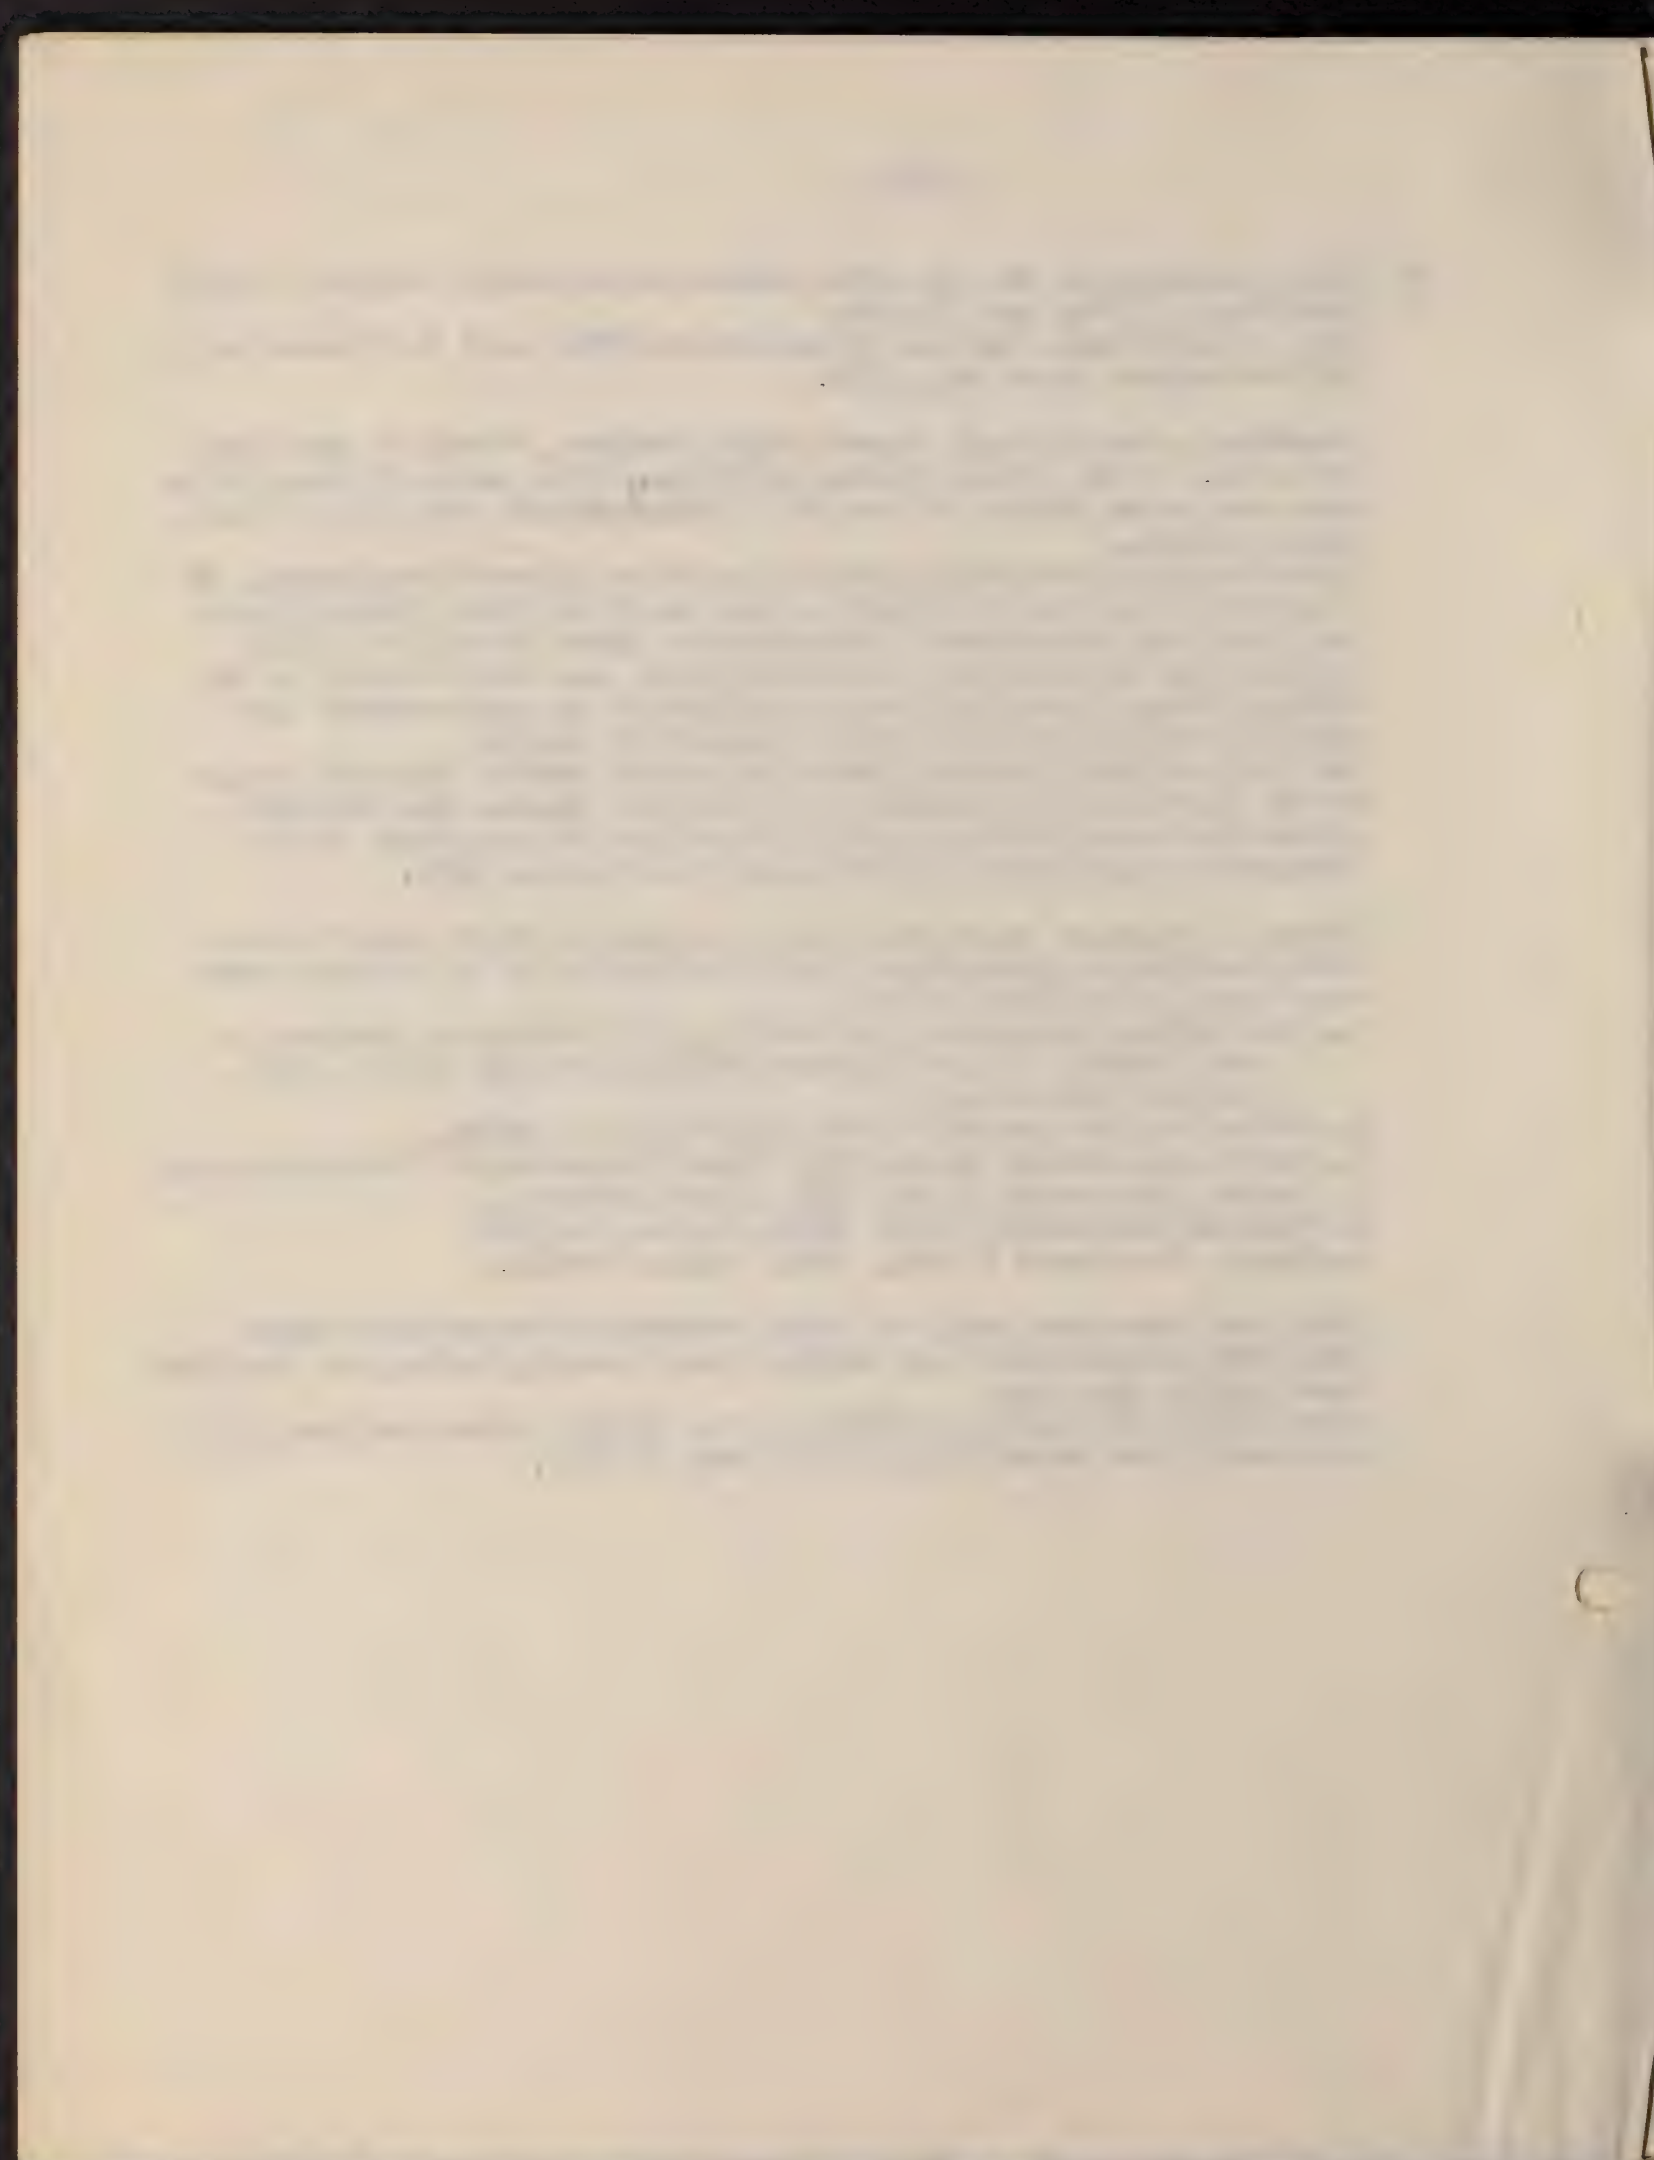

Asa Dibble at that time was a member of Captain Amariah Richards' Company of the King's Rangers, commanded by Major James Rogers. This Regiment settled in Fredericksburgh, which may have been the reason why he left Elizabethtown and settled in the former township about 1800.

Nothing is known of Asa Dibble's wife, not even her first name. He evidently married in Elizabethtown, and it is likely that his children were born there. His children may be:

1. Aaron (Orin), who married, before July, 1817, Catherine, daughter of John Diamond, U. E. He may have married, secondly, 15 May, 1837, Margaret Breckenridge.
2. Another son who married, before 1827, Julia Ann Keller.
3. Laurel, who married, before 1811, Thomas Richardson, of Fredericksburgh.
4. Lucinda, who married in May, 1811, Josiah Anderson.
5. Heseekiah, who married Rachel Smith. She born in 1798.
6. Rachel, who married 17 Feb., 1802, William Prindle.

While the Connecticut family of Dibble evidently descended from Robert Deeble who came with wife and children from Plymouth, England, to Dorchester Mass in 1629, there were Peter Diebel, wife and two children in the Palatine German settlers on the west bank of the Hudson River, in New York, in 1712.

Dear Sir;

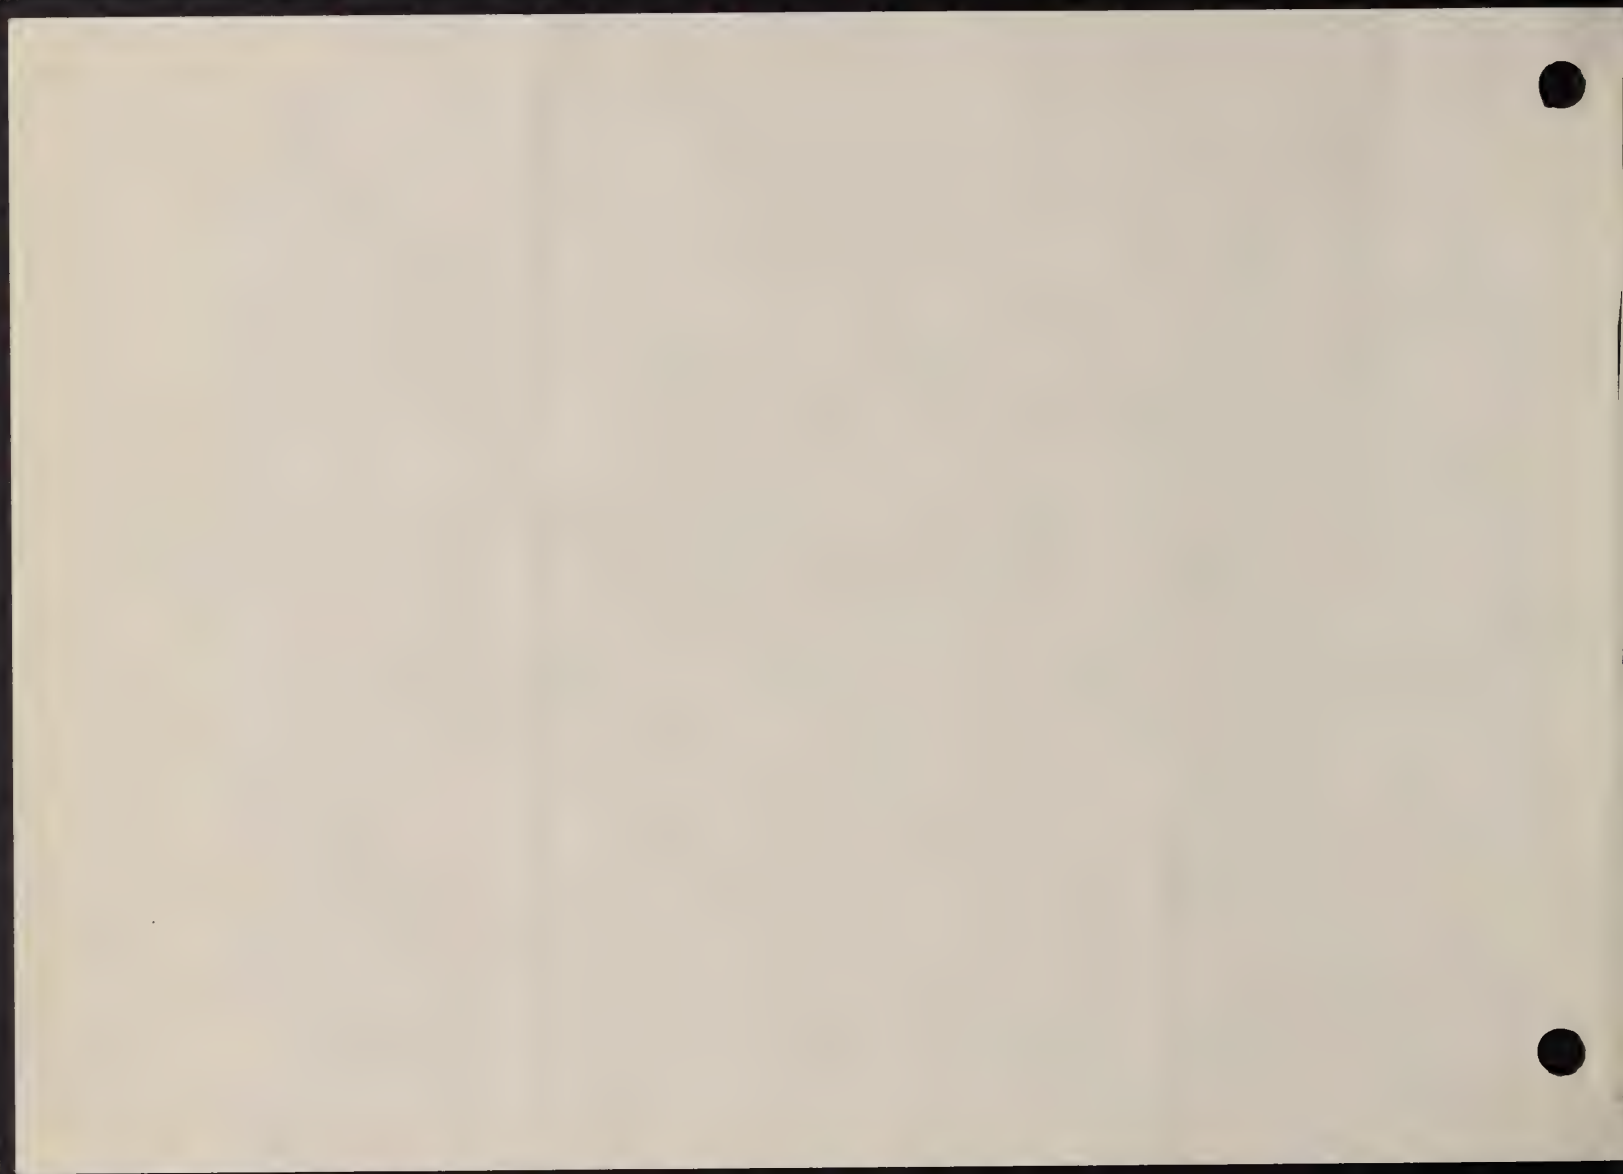

In 1954 I had some correspondence with you, and you said you would trade me the history of the Andersons and Fairbairns for that of the Dibbles. I then sent the two histories, but never heard from you, and gave up in discouragement.

I am now working again on my family, and wonder if this material ever reached you, and if so, if you were sick or some reason why you did not send anything on the Dibbles.

Hoping to hear from you, Sincerely yours,

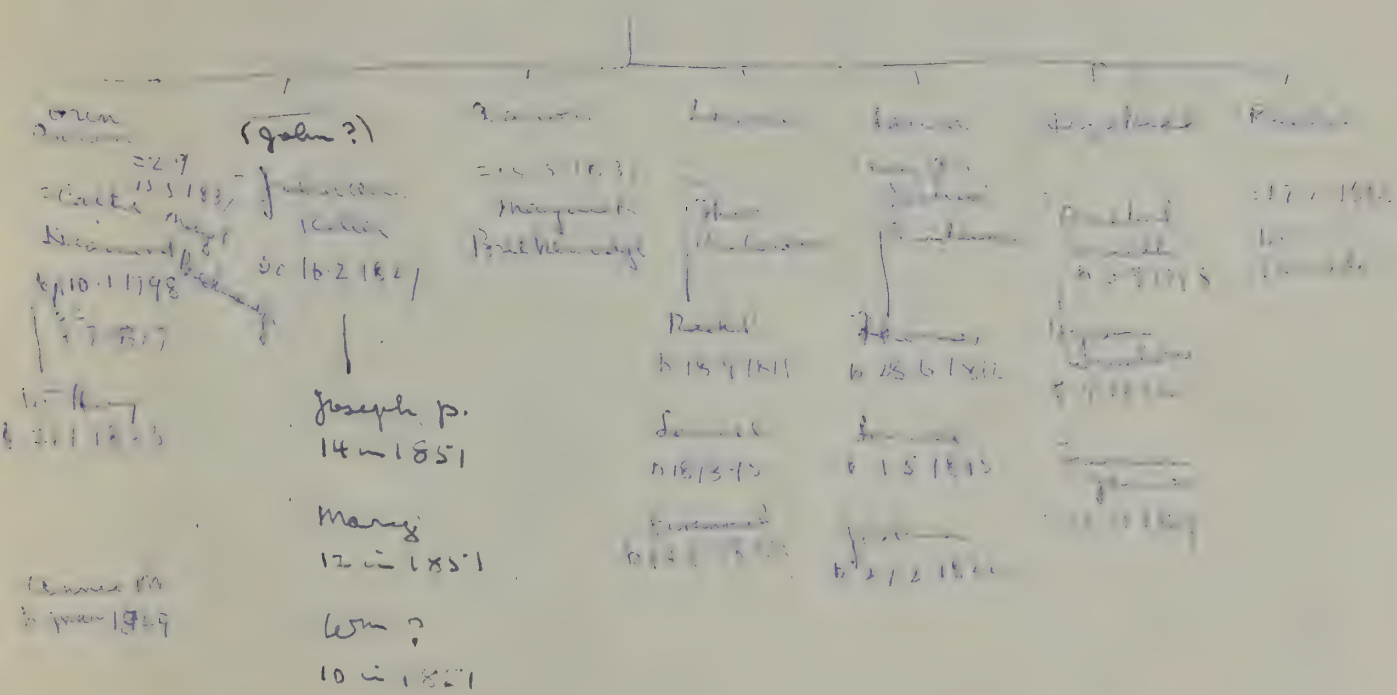

Mrs. Dan Kelty

Query C-4137 (6) DIBBLE. Ancestry asked of Rober Dibble and of his wife, name unknown. Had son Thomas who came from Weymouth, Eng., to Dorchester, Mass., 1635.

Reply Apr. 9, 1960. DIBBLE (DEEBLE).

Robert Deeble with wife and children joined the Dorchester Congregational in 1629 at Plymouth, Eng. Dorchester, Mass., records call Robert Deeble and Goody Deeble original members. Matthew Grant, of Windsor, Conn., in his diary calls Robert's son Thomas an original member. In both England and America the name is spelled in at least 35 different ways. It is certain that Robert descends from the Debles recorded in the Parish Register of the West Counties of England as early as 1400.

Dear Mrs. Kelty:

I have received your letter of March 26, and note that you consider my fee reasonable. This is a fact, considering that I have spent a good deal of the past twenty-seven years amassing information regarding our early settlers.

I am willing to accept your family history of John Anderson and his descendants, together with that of David Fairbairn, in return for what information I have on the Dibble family.

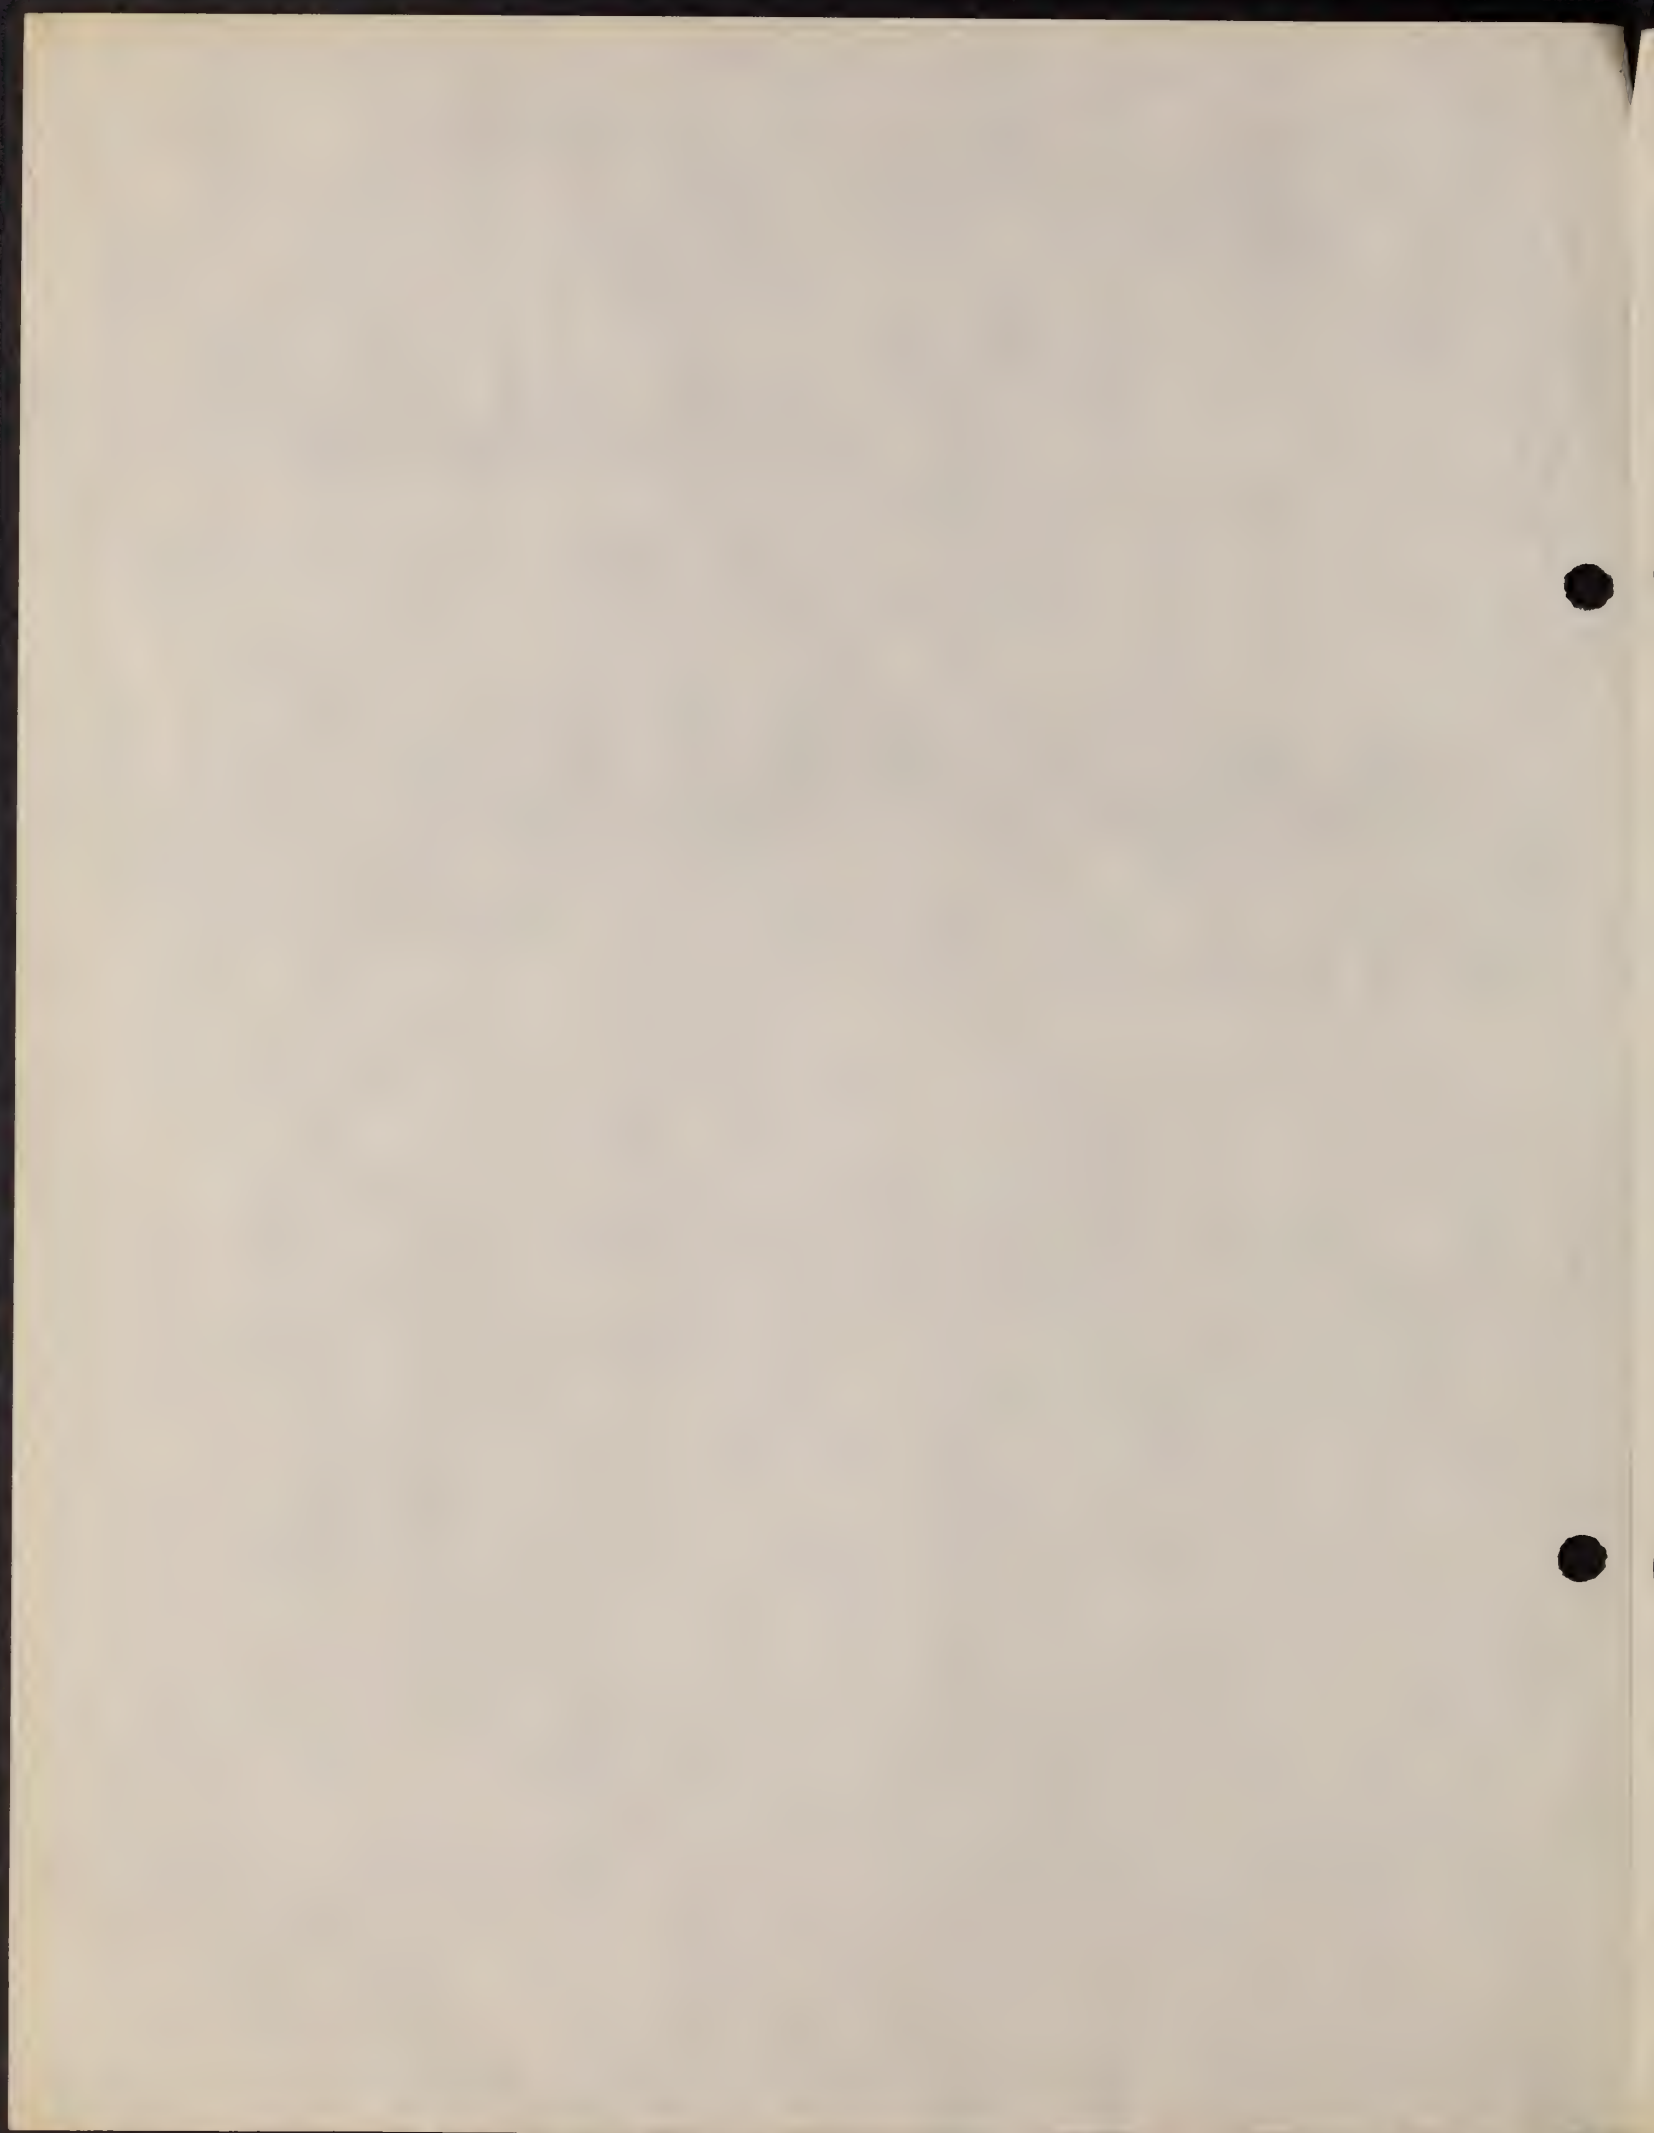

You are very fortunate, indeed, in the matter of the Percy and Post families. I have a great deal about these families. Hannah, Mary Ann and Peter Perry were born a short distance from here, and they lie buried in a neighboring cemetery. Their mother was a Post. I can likewise give names of grandparents and information as to their origin before arriving in this district. My fee for these two families is, as you might suspect, $10.00

If this arrangement is agreeable to you, please remit, and the information you desire will be forwarded within a few days.

Yours sincerely,

L. C. Burleigh,

Dear Sir;

Thank you for your letter about the Dibbles. Your fee is indeed reasonable. I am not a genealogist, but an ordinary housewife with four youngsters, simply interested in getting the family history straight; would you be willing to trade my family history of the John Anderson who settled in 1797 in Fredricksburgh and his descendents for part payment of the $ 5.00. I also have the story of the Rev. James Gardiner's family line; and that of David Fairbairn of Brockville and Teeswater.

Lucinda Dibble married Joshua Anderson in Fredricksburgh in 1811. Her father, Asa Dibble is the only Dibble I would like to find anything historical about. That he came from Oxford, River Thames I know; but would like to know when. I have his petition for land in Fredricksburgh dated 1800 - stating that he was discharged from the King's Rangers at St. John in 1783. I would like to know the maiden name of his wife if possible, or where the family lived between 1783 and 1800. My two sources of this information were the Archives and the Toronto Library (public). I am trying to write a history for the family, not of names and dates, but of what these people were like as people.

I have been trying to find out the parentage of a Hannah Percy, born in Fredricksburgh in 1815; Mary Ann Percy 1819; and Dr. Peter Perry Percy 1823. I have run into a complete blank at the Archives and Toronto Public Library on them.

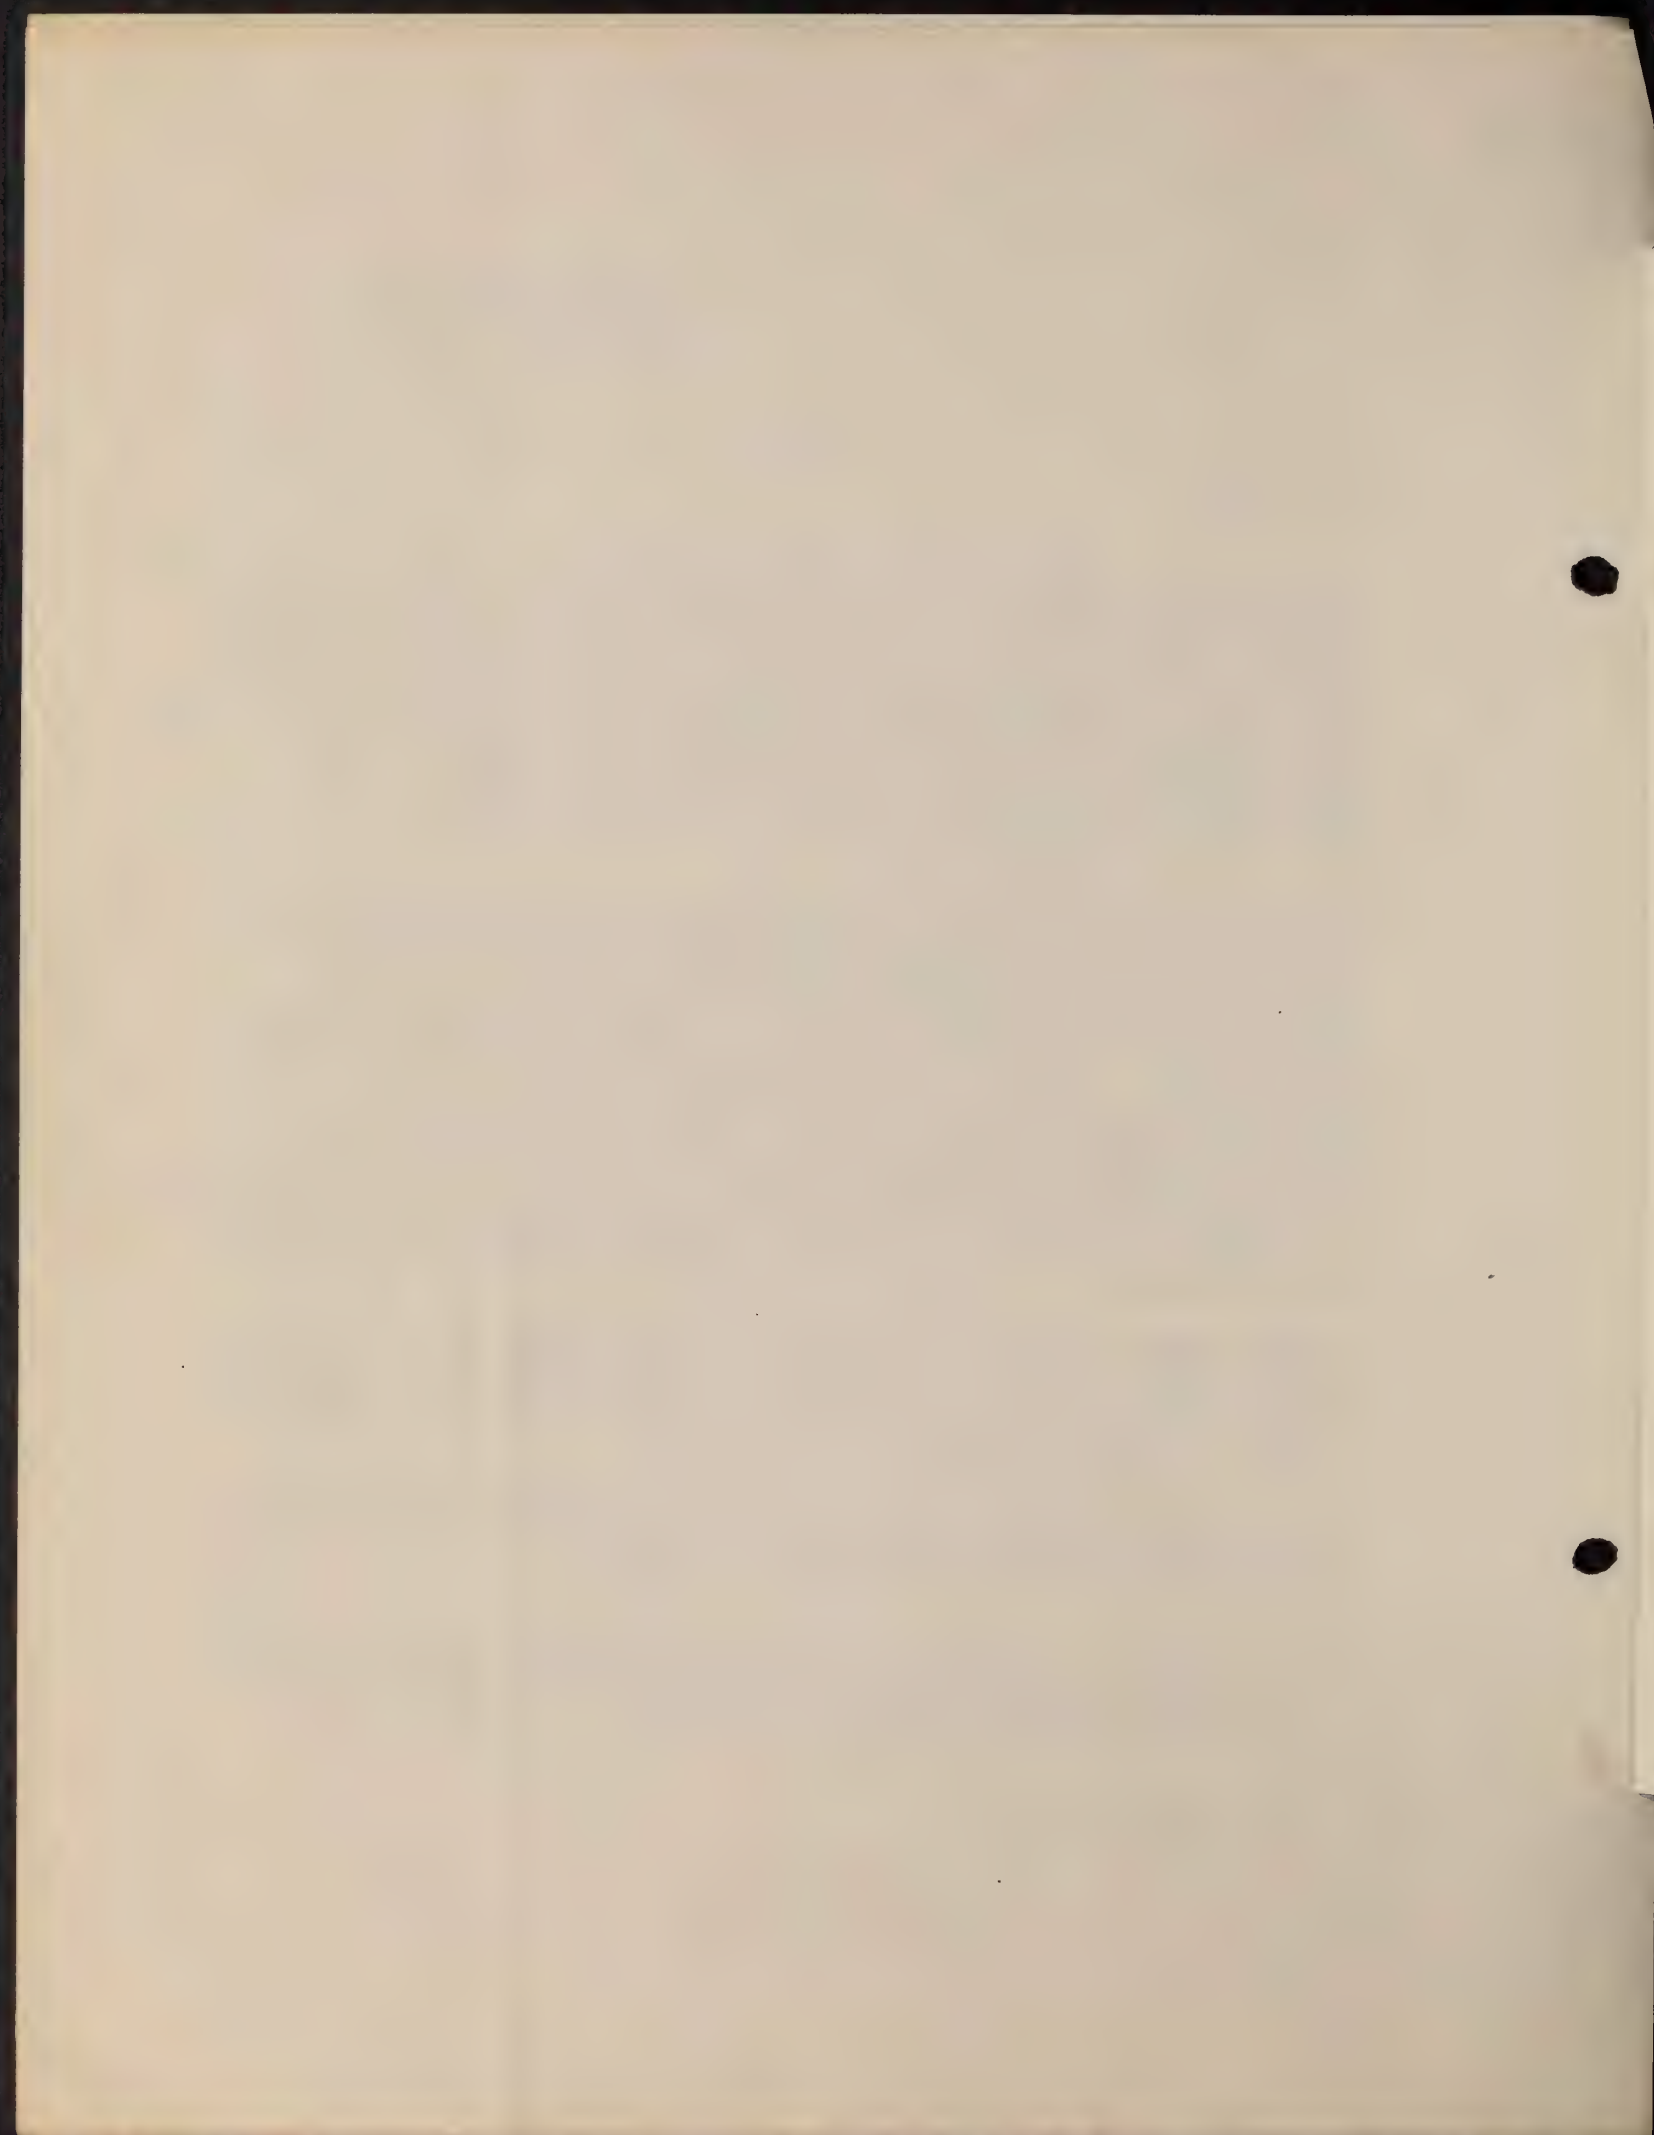

You round up as much as you can on the above two families in the years before 1815 - I care not of the years since then; and let me know how much I owe you.

You might be interested to know that I am a distant relative (very distant) by marriage of Judge Gerald Smith of Nanawee and he has been most kind in helping me to get as much information as is available there and at Morven.

Sincerely yours,

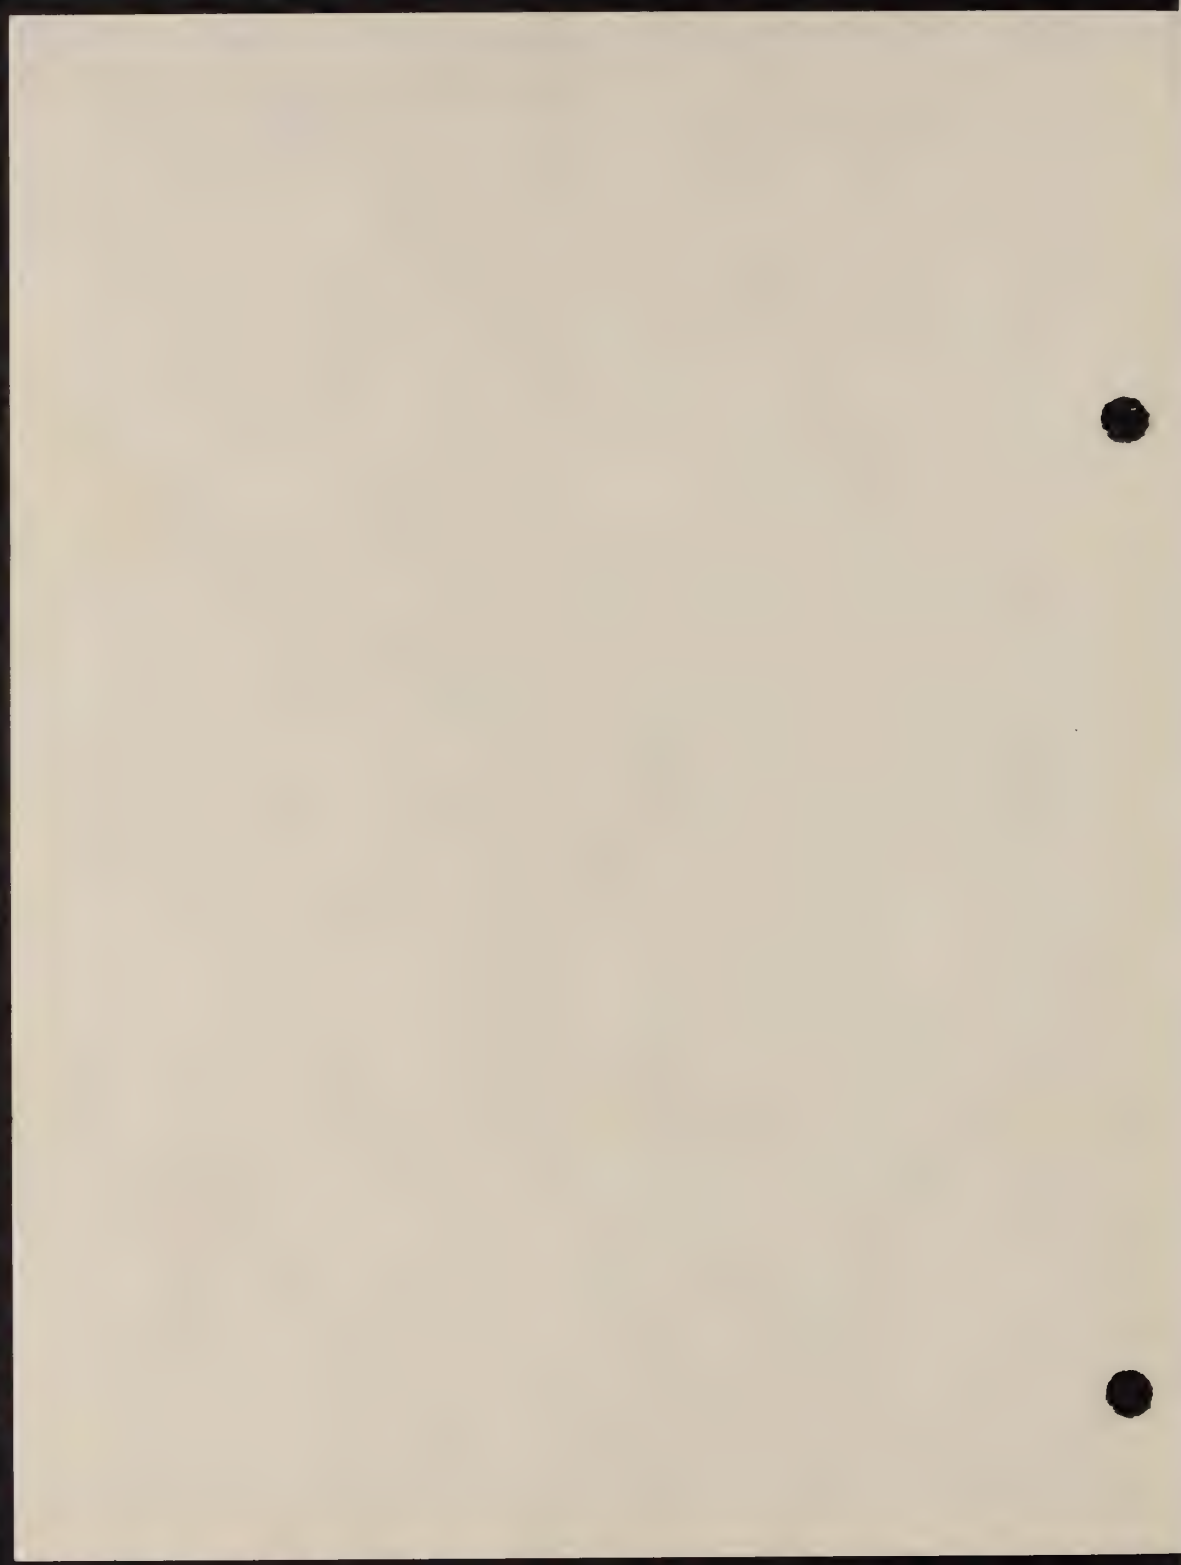

Mrs. Dan Kelly

Dear Doctor:

Enclosed find the letter
I received asking for information concerning a family by the name of "Dibles." I learned from Mr. Perry Young that the island that is now owned by him was once owned by a family of that name.

The island is across from the school at Silkeville.

He has a cottage on it
which he uses for hunting in the fall.

Mr. Young was also telling me that the cemetery you were speaking about is near to the old brick church that has been unused for some time.

It is near that church.

Yours truly,

Anna C. Loyst.
